Application Specialist

The University of Illinois seeks qualified candidates to provide technical and analytic support for implementation of an Enterprise Resource system at the Urbana-Champaign campus. The new system will result in the replacement of Human Resources, Financial, and Student systems. The Application Specialist will be responsible for developing expertise in application features, functionality, and data structures. Additionally, the Application Specialist will be responsible for leading analysis/design efforts, and developing functional specifications for interfaces and software modifications.

Qualified candidates will possess a Bachelor's degree in a related discipline and 3-5 years of professional work experience supporting major systems implementation activities. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, salary expectations, and a statement of campus location preference. For full consideration, submit resume via fax, e-mail, or hardcopy by January 15, 2004. Mail to:
